Text: William Navidi, Statistics for Engineers and Scientists (3rd Edition).

Office Hours: Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays: 3:00-5:00pm or by appointment.

Prerequisite: Math 1311(Calculus I) or equivalent.

Course Content: Selected topics from Chapter 1-7 (if time permits).

Examination: There will be three Midterm Exams and a Final Exam. The tentative schedule for the exams will be as follows:

First Midterm Exam	February 20, 7:00-8:30 pm
Second Midterm Exam	March 20, 7:00-8:30 pm
Third Midterm Exam	April 24, 7:00-8:30 pm
Final Exam	May 13, 03:30-06:30 pm

Homework: You will be assigned homework regularly. Some of them will be collected for grading.

Grading: Your overall score will be based on your scores on the Homework, the three Midterm Exams, and the Final Exam and will be as follows:

Homework	20%
Midterms Exams (3)	20% each
Final Exam	20%

Your final grade scale will be: 90-100 for A, 75-89 for B, 60-74 for C, 50-59 for D, and 0-49 for a F.

Attendance: Students are advised to attend all lectures as additional material and information on the course could be given in class. Furthermore, I intend to keep a formal record of attendance which I will use in order to determine which borderline grades (67.5-69.99,77.5-79.99,87.5-89.99) could be bumped up to the next upper letter grade.

Academic Integrity: Refer to the Honor Code at http://www.trinity.edu/departments/academic-affairs/honor code/. This Code must be pledged and signed.

Students with disabilities: If you have a documented disability and will need accommodations in this class, please privately speak with me early in the semester so I may be prepared to meet your needs. All discussions will remain confidential. If you not already registered with Disabilities Services for Students, contact the office at (210) 999 7411 or dss@trinity.edu. You must be registered with DSS before I can provide accommodations.
