Textbook: Undergraduate Algebra (3rd ed.) by Serge Lang

Course Content: Elementary group theory, including: the isomorphism theorems, the fundamental theorem of finite abelian groups, group actions and the Sylow theorems.

Assignments: Exercises and reading will be assigned daily and posted on the course web page. Solutions to assigned exercises will only be due once a week. Due dates for all assignments will be clearly indicated. I reserve the right to penalize or refuse to accept late assignments.

All assignments must be typeset in \LaTeX and submitted electronically. Handwritten work will not be accepted.

Collaboration on assignments is permitted and encouraged, and you are free to consult any individual or resource that you find helpful. However, plagiarism is unacceptable. Attempting to pass off the work of others (regardless of the source) as your own will be considered a violation of the honor code.

Exams: There will be two take-home exams during the semester as well as a cumulative final exam. The dates for the exams are as follows:

First Exam	February 10
Second Exam	March 24
Final Exam	May 9, 8:30–11:30am

Use of Previous Exams: Students are permitted to obtain and study exams given in previous semesters. However, previous exams should not be used to judge the content or difficulty of the exams that will be given in this course.

Attendance: Attendance is expected but is not mandatory. Roll will not be taken, but excessive absences should be explained to me.

Due to the ongoing pandemic, I understand that many students will fall ill this semester. If you find yourself falling behind in your coursework due to a serious illness, please let me know as soon as possible so that we can decide on alternate due dates for assignments and/or exams, if necessary. In particular, any student who is required to quarantine or isolate because of COVID-19 should contact me immediately so that we can determine the optimal means of attending class virtually.

Grades: Each student's letter grade will be determined by the weighted average of their assignment and exam scores, as follows.

Assignments	30 %
Midterm Exams	20 % (each)
Final Exam	30 %

Additional Information

Academic Integrity: All students are covered by the Trinity University Honor Code which prohibits dishonesty in academic work. Under the Honor Code, a faculty member will (or a student may) report an alleged violation to the Academic Honor Council. It is the task of the Council to investigate, adjudicate, and assign a punishment within certain guidelines if a violation has been verified. Students are required to pledge all written work that is submitted for a grade: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received any unauthorized assistance on this work” and their signature. The pledge may be abbreviated “pledged” with a signature.

The specifics of the Honor Code, its underlying philosophy, and the norms for sanctioning can all be found on the Academic Honor Council website, accessed through the Trinity Homepage:

Special Needs: If you have a documented disability and will need accommodations in this class, please speak with me privately early in the semester so I may be prepared to meet your needs. If you have not already registered with Student Accessibility Services, contact the office at 999-7411 or SAS@trinity.edu. You must be registered with SAS before I can provide accommodations.

Academic Support Resources: Trinity faculty hold students to the highest academic standards, but we also know that the very best students seek out help when necessary. To learn more about the resources that are in place to support your academic success, visit Trinity’s Academic Support Homepage:

Title IX/Sexual Misconduct Reporting: As a Responsible Employee who is committed to creating an environment where every member of our community can thrive, I want to let you know that I am a Mandatory Reporter. What that means is that I am required to report any instances of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, non-consensual sexual intercourse, non-consensual sexual contact, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence, stalking, and related retaliation that I am aware of to the Title IX Coordinator. So, if you share information with me about any incidents that implicate the Sexual Misconduct or Anti-Harassment Policies, I am required to report all information to the Title IX Coordinator to make sure you have information about support resources and complaint resolution options. My report does not initiate the complaint process, and you are in control over how you choose to engage with our Title IX Coordinator. If you or someone you know has experienced sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, I encourage you to share this information directly with the Title IX Coordinator or one of the individuals who has been designated as a confidential resource on campus. Information about reporting is available here:
